How to Choose Personal Statement Prompt

1. Choose a specific prompt

It is important to select a prompt that is not too general. If you want to construct a professional statement, you have to choose a clear and specific prompt that will define its requirements clearly. It will help you write an impressive personal statement to secure admission or attain a scholarship.

2. It should be interesting

The prompt should not be boring or uninteresting. It should consist of several experiences and opinions of you depicting your strengths and qualities. The topic should be interesting enough to grab the attention of the readers in no time.

3. It should exhibit your qualities and academic excellence

The personal statement should not represent a book review or report an irrelevant event. It should depict your qualities and academic excellence through various interesting experiences that have a huge significance in your life.

1. Describe your favorite personality.
2. The most challenging moment in your life?
3. Why do you want to attend this university?
4. How do you think higher education impacts the career of students?
5. Write about the book you love the most.
6. Write about the movie you have enjoyed watching.
7. Write about your personal qualities.
8. Write about your academic career.
9. Reflect on the time when you challenged any belief or an idea. What was the idea and what were the consequences?

10. Tell us about something that someone has done for you that made you thankful and ecstatic? How does being grateful impact your life?
11. Describe an event that sparked a period of personal as well as professional growth for you and others.
12. Explain the topic or an idea that seems so interesting to you that it makes you lose track of time. Explain the reason why it captivates your attention?
13. Tell us about the person you turn to when you want to gain knowledge and wise advice? Explain the behavior pattern of this person?
14. Write an essay on a topic of your own choice.
15. Write about your academic achievements.
16. Share the story that makes you different from others.
